

AFSC Peace & Economic Security Program, Channing & Popai Liem Education Foundation, United for Justice with Peace, Greater Boston Korean American Network, and Department of Christian Ethics-Episcopal Divinity School

WomenCrossDMZ

Report Back from a Historic Walk in the Koreas for Peace and Reunification

Wednesday, November 18, 2015 | 7:30 p.m.

St. John's Chapel, Episcopal Divinity School,
99 Brattle St. Harvard Square, Cambridge, MA 02130

Christine Ahn, Dohee Lee & M. Brinton Lykes & Ramsay Liem

Christine Ahn, Executive Director, Women Cross DMZ

M. Brinton Lykes, Community-cultural psychologist, Lynch School of Education &

Center for Human Rights and International Justice, Boston College

Dohee Lee, Isadora Duncan Special Awardee for Outstanding Achievement

Ramsay Liem, Professor Emeritus of Boston College &

President, Channing & Popai Liem Education Foundation

Ahn and Lykes joined 28 other women from 15 different countries to cross the DMZ on May 24, 2015, International Women's Day for Peace and Disarmament. This year also marks the 70th anniversary of the separation of the two Koreas that set the stage for the world's longest un-ended war and six decades of family separation for millions of Koreans more than 100,000 of whom live in the United States.

ALL ARE WELCOME - FREE and OPEN TO THE PUBLIC