

A conversation about

FEMINISM & WAR

in the Asia Pacific

Thursday, April 6, 2017

6:00 - 8:00 pm

WING LUKE MUSEUM

719 South King Street | Seattle, WA 98104

Please join us for an evening of learning and conversation about the role of feminism in ending war and achieving peace and justice. Poet and translator Don Mee Choi will open with a reading from her powerful collection, Hardly War. Christine Ahn, founder of Women Cross the DMZ and co-founder of the Korea Policy Institute, will speak on the current threat of war in the Asia Pacific. Local writer and activist Soya Jung will moderate a conversation about feminism and war with Ahn, local Lakota organizer Matt Remle, international human rights activist Cindy Domingo, and GABRIELA Seattle's Jill Mangaliman.

Free and open to the public. Light food provided.
