On January 16, 2018 Foreign Ministers from 20 nations will gather in Vancouver to discuss security and stability on the Korean Peninsula. An international delegation of 16 women peacemakers from across Asia, Europe and North America are also gathering in Vancouver to press the Foreign Ministers to pursue a comprehensive and lasting resolution to the longstanding conflict.

On the eve of the Vancouver summit, join the women representing peace movements from around the world in a candlelight vigil by adding your dreams, hopes and prayers for peace, reconciliation and genuine security on the Korean Peninsula.

This candlelight vigil in Vancouver will be held simultaneously with a peace march in Korea, when over 100 Korean women will be marching from PyeongChang to near the DMZ to express their support for a peaceful Olympics and the peaceful reunification of Korea
