CENTRE 1055 CANADA PLACE | VANCOUVER, BC

On January 16, 2018, as Foreign Ministers from 20 nations gather in Vancouver to discuss security and stability on the Korean Peninsula, 16 women leaders representing peace, environment, women's and social justice movements from across Asia, Europe and North America are also coming to Vancouver. WHY? To press Foreign Ministers to set the table for a diplomatic process for the Korean Peninsula that moves us away from war and more militarization and towards peace, reconciliation and genuine security.

As the summit gets underway inside, join the women's peace delegation outside the Vancouver Convention Centre for sharing from Korean women, to hear messages of solidarity from around the world, and drumming and dancing for peace.
