

UNDOING 70 YEARS OF WAR: A ROUNDTABLE ON ADVANCING PEACE IN KOREA

MONDAY, JULY 27, 1-2:30 PM EST

Join a roundtable discussion with leading experts on Korea and U.S-Korean relations on how a peace agreement can resolve the security crisis on the Korean Peninsula.

SPEAKERS:

- Lt. Col. Daniel Davis, Senior Fellow and Military Expert at Defense Priorities
- Henri Feron, Senior Fellow at the Center for International Policy
- Jessica Lee, Senior Research Fellow on East Asia at Quincy Institute
- Adam Mount, Senior Fellow and Director of the Defense Posture Project at the Federation of American Scientists
- Hazel Smith, Professorial Research Associate at SOAS, University of London
- Moderated by Katharine H.S. Moon, Professor of Political Science and the Wasserman Chair of Asian Studies at Wellesley College

Introductions will be given by Christine Ahn (Executive Director of Women Cross DMZ), Suzanne DiMaggio (Chairman of Quincy Institute), and Kelley Vlahos (Executive Editor of The American Conservative). There will also be welcome statements by Rep. Ro Khanna (D-CA17) and Doug Bandow (Cato Institute).

Click here to register.

Hosted by

MOBILIZING WOMEN
FOR PEACE IN KOREA
WOMENCROSSDMZ

QUINCY INSTITUTE
FOR RESPONSIBLE
STATECRAFT

The American
Conservative